

U.S. ARMY MEDICAL LOGISTICS COMMAND

SSG TERESO HERNANDEZ

Detachment Sergeant, Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment Sergeant
U.S. Army Medical Materiel Agency

---

SSG Tereso A. Hernandez is a native of El Paso, TX. He began his Army career in the Army Reserves in June 2006 as a medical logistics specialist and transitioned to active duty in May 2007.

SSG Hernandez's first assignment was with the 212th Combat Support Hospital from 2007-2009 where he served in the S4 Section before he was assigned to the William Beaumont Army Medical Center from 2009-2011 as the medical logistics specialist.

From 2011-2012, SSG Hernandez was assigned to Evans Army Community Hospital Logistics Warehouse, before going to 10th Combat Support Hospital to serve as the NCOIC of the Medical Logistics Section from 2012 to 2014. His next assignment was at Madigan Army Medical Center from 2014-2017 where he served as the NCOIC of the medical warehouse before he served on a tour to Kuwait with 31st Combat Support Hospital from Fort Bliss, Texas.

Between 2017-2022, SSG Hernandez served as the Battalion Medical Support Office NCOIC and Platoon SGT with the 215th Brigade Support Battalion, Charlie Company (C Co), with a rotation to Camp Humphreys, South Korea. SSG Hernandez most recent assignment was with USAMMA where he served in the S4 Section as the property NCO.

SSG Hernandez's military education includes the Equal Opportunity Leaders Course, Advanced Leaders Course, Department of Army Retention Course, Leader Comprehensive Training, and Basic Leaders Course.

SSG Hernandez's awards and decorations include the Army Commendation Medal (1 SOLC and 1 BOLC), Army Achievement Medal (1 SOLC), National Defense Service Medal Ribbon, Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal Ribbon, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal Ribbon, Army Good Conduct Medal (5), and the Armed Forces Service Medal Ribbon.

BE ALL YOU CAN BE.

