

CAPTAIN ANDREW R. WHITTENBARGER

Detachment Commander, U.S. Army Medical Materiel Agency

CPT Andrew R. Whittenbarger is a Medical Service Corps Officer and a native of Kingston, TN. He is a distinguished Military Graduate of the Tennessee Technological University ROTC program. Academic achievements include a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering and 15 credit hours towards a Master of Science in Data Science. From 2019-2021, he served as the Executive Officer for 43rd Medical Detachment Veterinary Service Support, 9th Hospital Center, 1st Medical Brigade. CPT Whittenbarger most recently served as the Treatment Platoon Leader and Executive Officer for 546th Medical Company (Area Support) from 2021-2022. While assigned to 546th MCAS, his platoon was mobilized to support Operation Allies Welcome at Fort McCoy, WI, where he served as the OIC for the role two medical facility.

CPT Whittenbarger's military education includes: Medical Logistics Officer Course, Unit Movement Officer Course, Transportation Coordinators Automated Information for Movement Systems II Course, and AMEDD Officer Basic Course.

His awards and decorations include the Air Assault Badge, German Armed Forces Proficiency Badge, Army Commendation Medal with Oak Leaf Clusters, Humanitarian Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, and Army Service Ribbon.

